CROESUS

NARCISSUS OR DAFFODILS

In order to have a beautiful bulb garden, Narcissus should be planted very freely. They thrive in practically any climate in the United States, and are not only excellent for outdoors, but millions are used every year for forcing indoors. Their graceful form, beautifully shaped trumpets and cups, and the long, straight stems have made them favorites for cut-flower purposes.

Plant in soil in pots or bulb pans. Plunge in cold frames or place in cool basement. When well rooted bring into conservatory, greenhouse or place in sunny window in a cool temperature.

Culture Outdoors. Plant so that top of bulb is at least five inches beneath the soil. A little protection should be given during severe winter weather, although they are perfectly hardy.

The following list of Daffodils has been selected carefully and is recommended as most suitable for our gardens. The varieties presented on this page are not only adapted to this section but are garden varieties that can be offered at reasonable prices.

HARDY FLOWERING BULBS THAT BLOOM IN EARLY SPRING AND SUMMER—(Continued)

CAMASSIA LEICHTLINI BLUE. A hardy and showy bulbous plant which will do well in the border or naturalized in an open moderately moist woodland. Cover the bulbs 4 inches deep with fine sandy soil. CHIONODOXA LUCILIAE (Glory-of-the-Snow). An extensive planting forms one of the most sumptuous displays of floral beauty a mass of blue and white, intense and brilliant. They bloom at the time of the Crocuses, producing dwarf flower spikes, bearing from 8 to 10 little blossoms of a sky-blue with a pure white heart, creating a lovely effect. They should be planted in fall 3 inches deep, about 18 bulbs to a square foot in a sunny location or in half shade and in places where they can remain undisturbed for a number of years. The flowers will cross with one another and will seed themselves, forming natural colonies. 60c per dozen; $4.00 per 100.

COLCHICUM (Meadow Saffron)

GIANT AUTUMN-FLOWERING CROCUS

The flowers of this accommodating plant resemble crocus. If planted in August or September, the flowers will appear in a short time but the foliage does not appear until spring. They may remain in one spot for years without deterioration. The bulbs may also be bloomed in a sunny window without soil and water and may be planted out after blooming. Plant 2 to 3 inches deep.

Autumnale Major. Rosy purple. 25c each; $2.50 per doz.

SPRING-FLOWERING CROCUS

Crocus are frequently the first flowers to appear in spring, coming a few days after the snow disappears. They are at their very best when scattered over a lawn or planted in rows as a border to a bed of perennials. When used on a lawn, scatter them freely over the surface, then lift the sod with a trowel and slip the bulb underneath. Crocus may also be grown in pots or bulb pans and will produce a pleasing effect. The bulbs are entirely hardy, and the grass may be mowed without injuring the Crocus plants. Mixed. 10 for 75c; 100 for $6.50.

BULBOUS IRISES

Few bulbous plants are as easy to grow as the bulbous iris. Their flowers are graceful as orchids, are valuable as cut flowers and also very showy in the flower garden. We offer three types, Dutch, which is a splendid improvement over the old Spanish, and in addition to the Dutch we offer the English and a hybrid type known as Wedgewood. The English are useful for outdoor planting and follows the Dutch in bloom. Culture—Bulbs of Dutch and English Iris when planted outdoors should be planted 4 to 5 inches deep.

FACTS CONCERNING FALL SOWING

The cool, moist weather of late summer and early fall affords an ideal condition for renovating or rebuilding a lawn that has suffered from drought, neglect, or the ravages of crab grass or other weeds. Fall is also the ideal time for building a new lawn. Seed sown at this time will show quicker growth and has a tendency to stool or spread out, a condition not present during the warmer months. Competition with weeds is practically eliminated at this season, since the latter will not germinate until spring, by which time fall-sown grass is thoroughly established, therefore allowing the weeds very little chance to thrive. Seed may be sown successfully as late as November in the latitude of Cincinnati, but we would recommend September for best results.

QUANTITY TO SOW FOR LAWNS

We recommend sowing at the rate of one pound to 200 square feet for a new lawn or 100 to 150 pounds per acre. It requires about one-half as much seed for an established lawn. Send for booklet, "How to Make and Maintain a Lawn".
